

Arrange date for colloquium:

Appointments for colloquiums are arranged one year in advance and for the whole term. First the room assignment is processed, then an e-mail is sent to all staff members of the departments of information systems. The appointments are published on the department's webpage.