

Printing order:

A staff member fills in the printing order form and hands it over to the printing-office. If the document is a research report it is registered on the department's webpage. The printing-office confirms the order and the date of completion via e-mail. At this date a staff member calls the printing-office. If the printing order is finished, the staff member picks-up the document.