

Announcement of commencement of duties:

After a staff member returns to work the office manager fills in a “commencement of duties” form, which is sent to the personnel department.