

Announcement of a lost transponder:

A written announcement is made and sent to the department I. Then the transponder gets blocked. Finally a new proposal for transponder has to be processed, but the invoice for the new transponder is billed on the employee. If the employee vanishes, the transponder is billed on the department.