

Control of accounting entries:

Each department has a fixed budget. But it is not unusual that, account transfers are signed to the wrong cost-unit. So the office manager needs to check the transfers continuously. The office manager uses a web-interface to check the department account. In case of a wrong transfer the office manager informs the finance department of the university, about the transfer.