

De-inventory of equipment:

A list containing all parts to de-invent is made up and given to the office of the inventory department. Then an office clerk comes to collect the equipment. Afterwards the equipment is taken from the inventory list of the university.