

Order of office material:

The office manager recognises a lack of office material. The office manager enters the web-interface of the office-supply department and orders the supplies. The office-supply department confirms the order by e-mail. With the delivery comes a withdrawal form. Finally the office manager checks the department's account.