

CALL FOR PAPERS
KANT YEARBOOK 19/2027

The KANT YEARBOOK is now accepting submissions for its nineteenth issue in 2027. The topic is

Philosophy of Law

All papers discussing “Philosophy of Law” in relation to Kant’s work from a historical, systematic and/or contemporary perspective are welcome.

The KANT YEARBOOK is an international journal that publishes articles on the philosophy of Immanuel Kant. It is the KANT YEARBOOK’s goal to intensify innovative research on Kant on the international scale. For that reason, the KANT YEARBOOK prefers to publish articles in English, however, articles in German will also be considered. Each issue is dedicated to a specific topic. The KANT YEARBOOK practices double-blind review, i.e., the reviewers are not aware of the identity of a manuscript’s author, and the author is not aware of the reviewers’ identity. Submitted manuscripts must be anonymous; that is the authors’ names and references to their work capable of identifying them are not to appear in the manuscript. Detailed instructions and author guidelines are available at:
