

Short CV: Sabine Arndt-Lappe

born 1972, married, 1 child (born 2008)

Education
2014	Habilitation (post-doctoral degree) & venia legendi in English linguistics, Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf Thesis: An Analogy-Based Theory of English Word-Formation: Algorithms, Predictions, and Evidence
2005	Dr. phil. in English linguistics, Universität Siegen dissertation: English Prosodic Morphology (published 2007, Springer)
1999	Erstes Staatsexamen für das Lehramt an Gymnasien und Gesamtschulen, Philipps-Universität Marburg Subjects: English, Latin
Employment
2015 –	Professor of English linguistics, Universität Trier
2012 – 2015	Post-doctoral researcher, Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf
2010 – 2012	Substitute professor, Universität Siegen
2000 – 2010	Doctoral and post-doctoral researcher, Universität Siegen
2008 – 2009	On parental leave
1999 – 2000	Doctoral researcher, Philipps-Universität Marburg
Committees
2020 -	Trier U ethics committee, representing the faculty of Languages, Literatures, and Media
2018 -	Spokesperson of the Trier Center for Language and Communication (TCLC, with Katharina Zahner-Ritter)
2016 - 2020	Head of the faculty library committee
Grants
2022 - 2025	Project English Root Stress across Frameworks - Guierre Meets Analogy (Principal Investigators: Sabine Arndt-Lappe & Quentin Dabouis), funded by DFG and the ANR under the French-German collaborative scheme
2019 - 2023	Research group Patterns. Linguistic Creativity and Variation in Synchrony and Diachrony , funded by the Forschungsinitiative Rheinland-Pfalz (Trier U, spokespersons: Sabine Arndt-Lappe & Natalia Filatkina (2019-2020), Sören Stumpf (2020-2021), Katharina Zahner-Ritter (2021 - )
2015 – 2018	Project The Prosody of Derived Words in English (Principal Investigator: Sabine Arndt-Lappe), part of Research Unit FOR 2373 Spoken Morphology (spokesperson: Ingo Plag), funded by the DFG
2005 – 2007; 2008 – 2011	Project Compound Stress in English: Modelling the Prosody of NN and NNN Constructions (Principal Investigators 2008-2011: Sabine Arndt-Lappe & Ingo Plag; 2005-2007: Ingo Plag) , funded by the DFG
2007 - 2010	Member of the Network Core Mechanisms of Exponence (PI: Jochen Trommer, Universität Leipzig), funded by the DFG