

Master of International Economics & Public Policy (IEPP)

Course Scheme¹

MA IEPP is a joint program by the Department of Political Science and the Department of Economics. It consists of 3 core modules in Economics, 3 core modules in Political Science, 3 additional specialisation modules and the master thesis.

One "module" may consist of different courses. Please be sure to check the PORTA System and the IEPP website for detailed information.

Name of Module Type of Module ECTS

1. Semester

Advanced Microeconomics	Economics	10
Macroeconomics/ Econometrics (*)	Economics	10
Research Techniques and Methods	Politics	10

(*) Students may choose either Advanced Macroeconomics or Econometrics

2. Semester

Economic Governance	Specialisation	10
International Economics	Economics	10
Global Governance	Politics	10

3. Semester

Economic Policies	Specialisation	10
Energy, Climate, Environment, Health	Specialisation	10
East Asian Politics and Governance	Politics	10

4. Semester

Master Thesis	30
	Σ 120

(This overview reflects the exam regulations as of 2017)

¹ Please note: This schedule is designed for a start in the winter term. We strongly recommend starting this program in the winter term. If you join during summer, you might need to deviate from the schedule presented above.