

Declaration of Independent Authorship

I, _____ (last name, first name), hereby declare that I have written the present dissertation independently and have not used any sources or aids other than those indicated. All thoughts and contents taken directly or indirectly from external sources have been clearly identified as such. I have not previously submitted the attached dissertation in the same or a comparable form for the purpose of obtaining a doctoral degree in another doctoral procedure. The dissertation has not yet been published.

In the case of the use of generative artificial intelligence (GenAI): I declare that I have explicitly marked the passages generated by GenAI and have stated the product names of the GenAI tools used and listed them completely in an overview. I take full responsibility for the inclusion of the GenAI-generated passages and contents used by me in my dissertation.
