

IASGP Travel Grants for Düsseldorf Graduate Conference on Party Research (GraPa)

The IASGP supports a limited number of participants interested in attending the annual graduate conference of the Düsseldorf Party Research Institute PRUF (GraPa).

The conditions are as follows:

- The paper should deal with German speaking countries, but this may be as part of a comparative analysis.
- Selection will be based on the quality of the paper proposal. Proposals from regions typically underrepresented at the GraPa are especially welcome, but we are open to high-quality proposals from anywhere.
- Applicants need to document that they cannot obtain funding from other sources (e.g. a letter signed by the PhD supervisor or head of department).
- Recipients are expected to join the IASGP. Graduate membership costs £8 per annum.

Procedure:

The application for financial support should be submitted alongside the application for the GraPa and include an estimate of expected travel costs, an abstract, and a letter of recommendation from the PhD supervisor.

The IASGP will not always be able to cover all costs.

Amounts per participant:

- a) Germany outside Düsseldorf / Cologne / Bonn (i.e. beyond commuter distance): £150 maximum
- b) Europe outside Germany: £350
- c) Outside Europe: £1500 maximum
