

Internship period: 6 months (min)
Start-date: ASAP
Internship subject: International JuniorBuyer

Context:

European Purchasing Organization of ArcelorMittal is managing the purchasing global categories from his Head Office in Luxembourg. EPO Corporate global entity of the ArcelorMittal group provide to the industrial sites across Europe a global overview, including the purchasing and negotiation of multi-country subjects.

Objectives:

The team is requiring junior buyer in charge of leading a tender on Liquid Fuels category (Diesel, Heating Oil, Biodiesel...) for our two main German industrial sites. The trainee will work in pairs with the Global Buyer Liquid Fuels on mainly two topics:

→ Tender on Diesel in Germany (going through the complete tender process)

→ Prepare the European tender for Propane/Butane across 7 countries

This internship will give you the opportunity to explore the purchasing department of a global leader on its field. You will also get insights both strategic and operational on the management of a purchasing global category.

Geographical scope of mission:

- Europe with a focus on Germany
- Official language in day-to-day activities: English, German, French

Competencies:

- Analytical, methodical and synthetic skills
- Strong skills in IT tools & Microsoft Pack Office (SAP is a plus)
- Awareness of purchasing process
- Communication skills
- Soft skills, capacity to convince and lead a project.
- Language proficiency (German and English are mandatory – French is a plus)

Profile:

- Education: Business school or Engineering
- Qualification: Masters level
- International profile (studies or job experience)

If you are interested send your cover letter and CV to berengere.vanbranteghem@arcelormittal.com