

Our Financial Accounting Advisory Services (FAAS) team provides advisory services encompassing support in the implementation of new accounting standards, such as IFRS, US GAAP and Luxembourg GAAP; improvement of reporting processes such as fast close project; GAAP conversion and implementation; on call financial reporting advice; transaction accounting and financial reporting assistance; consolidation support.

In order to develop the expansion of our Consolidation Service offering within the FAAS team, we are currently looking for several:

Trainee (m/f) - Financial Accounting Advisory Services (FAAS)

Your responsibilities:

Under the supervision of Seniors/Managers:

- ▶ Assist and support clients in the preparation of consolidated financial statements and improving their financial reporting to investors
- ▶ Assist clients in improving and implementing efficient consolidation reporting processes
- ▶ Assist clients in applying IFRS and Lux GAAP: conversions, implementation of new standards, accounting opinions, etc...
- ▶ Professionalism in servicing clients
- ▶ Ensure that engagements are executed in accordance with the firm's methodologies and guidance, professional standards and local legal and regulatory requirements
- ▶ IT Support : support clients to develop analytical tools or financial models for their daily operations

Your profile:

- ▶ You are finalizing a Master degree with specialization Audit, Finance, Economics or Accountancy
- ▶ You are dynamic and looking to work in a rapidly growing business
- ▶ You are client oriented and have the ability to develop excellent business relationship with clients
- ▶ You are a strong team player
- ▶ You have good project management skills
- ▶ You are a confident communicator
- ▶ You are fluent in English, German would be an advantage
- ▶ IT affine: VBA knowledge, BI