

Climate litigation

AS A MEANS TO HOLD MULTI-NATIONAL CORPORATIONS ACCOUNTABLE:
LESSONS FROM AND FOR SOUTH AFRICA

GUEST LECTURE BY: PROF. DR. MELANIE MURCOTT

Associate Professor of Environmental and Administrative Law,
University of Pretoria, LLD (NWU)

HOSTED BY: PROF. DR. BIRGIT PETERS, LL.M. (LONDON)

Professur für Öffentliches Recht, insbesondere Völker- & Europarecht

- TOPICS:
- The role of multi-national corporations in the global climate crisis
  - Holding multi-national corporations to account in court
  - South African litigation halting climate damaging activities
  - Lessons for South Africa in the future

● WHEN:

17. March 2022
14:00 Uhr

● WHERE:

Trier University, C-Building, HS 5;
Online Zoom-Conference (link via mail)

● CONTACT:

+49 (0)651 201-2584 intl@uni-trier.de