The lecture deals with human rights protection in the European Union and under the European Convention of Human Rights. It is part of the “Master of European and East Asian Governance” and of the law programme of the “Specialisation 6-II European and Public International Law”. Besides, it is open to all law and political sciences students who are interested in human rights protection and European law. Please register for the course in stud.ip. There, you will also find a reader with human rights cases and a list with recommended manuals and other references.

Please bring along a copy of the European Convention on Human Rights and of the Treaties of the European Union (Treaty on European Union, Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union).
