

2014 is the 550- anniversary of the death of Nicholas of Cusa, who died on August 11- 1464 in Todi during his journey from Rom to Ancona. Since autumn 1458, Cusanus had been Curial Cardinal in Rome. During this time he had significant influence on the curial politics and also wrote a number of significant philosophic-theological publications.

The anniversary-symposium of the academic advisory council of the Cusanus society addresses the Roman years of Nicholas of Cusa from different perspectives. It takes place in the German Pontifical Institute Santa Maria dell' Anima because Cusanus was a member of the Anima-congregation. Parts of the program are excursions to the church San Pietro in Vincoli, in which the grave of Nicholas of Cusa is located, to Campo Santo Teutonico in the Vatican as well as to Todi and the former abbey S. Servero e Martirio close to Orvieto, a benefice of Nicholas of Cusa (see flyer with the program).

The company Arche Noah Reisen GmbH organizes the journey and stay in Rome (arrival October 22- 2014, departure October 27- 2014) for all those interested

Flight / registration

In addition to the hotel stay you can also book the participation in a group flight. Unfortunately the flights are first expected to be bookable by the end of November 2013. The flying times and airfares are also not known until then. Therefore we calculate on the basis of the airfares of the year 2013. In order to be able to book the flights bindingly and at a cheap rate we need a binding pre-registration. You will receive a final invoice by the executing travel business Arche Noah Reisen shortly after the flying times and airfares are available.
