The Faculty of Language, Literature and Media Studies invites applications for a non-tenured appointment in the field of German Studies at the level of starting on 1 October 2021.

Assistant Professor (Juniorprofessorin/Juniorprofessor) of Gender Studies (W1) (m/f/d)

The successful candidate will represent the abovementioned field in both research and teaching. The professorship aims to improve equal opportunities for women in research and science.

Candidates must have a proven academic record in Gender Studies in the field of German Studies. Furthermore, candidates should have an additional research focus in the area of Postcolonial Studies and/or Intercultural Studies. They are also expected to have expertise that furthers cross-departmental and interdisciplinary cooperation in the context of the degree program “Intercultural Gender Studies”.

The duties of the position include research, teaching (4-6 hours per week) and conducting examinations in the degree programs “Intercultural Gender Studies” and “German Studies” as well as participation in academic self-administration.

Applicants must meet the general requirements according to public service law and the Higher Education Act of Rhineland-Palatinate (§ 54 HochSchG – Higher Education Act). We expect the candidate to be able to teach in German.

The employment term (limited term with civil service status) will generally run for six years. After three years and no later than the end of the fourth year of employment an interim evaluation will be conducted which is to serve as an orientation with regard to the standard of performance in teaching and research.

The State of Rhineland-Palatinate and Trier University are committed to intensive personal mentoring of students and, therefore, expect a regular presence of teaching staff at the University. Trier University aims to increase the proportion of women in research and teaching, and encourages female academics to apply. Disabled candidates with appropriate qualifications will be given priority.

Applicants must submit the usual documents (curriculum vitae, copies of certificates, list of publications, list of courses, list of the five publications that the applicant considers to be their most important) to the Dean of the Faculty II of Trier University, Prof. Sebastian Hoffmann, 54286 Trier (dekanatfb2@uni-trier.de) in a single PDF document. The deadline for submission is 21st March 2021.