TRIER UNIVERSITY

The following professorship is available at the Faculty of Law at the earliest possible date:

Professorship (W 3) for Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure Law and Economic Criminal Law (m/f/d)

The position holder should represent German Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure Law in their entire breadth, including their international and European aspects, as well as Economic Criminal Law in research and teaching. The candidate is expected to be willing to cooperate in the university's specialisation education, in particular the focal area (Schwerpunktbereich) 4 "Economic and Fiscal Criminal Law as well as European and International Criminal Law", and in the education in the area of basic subjects, as well as to have an academic record in the area of Economic Criminal Law. The ability to give lectures in English or French in addition to the basic courses in German is an asset.

The official duties result from § 48 of the Higher Education Act of Rhineland-Palatinate (HochSchG– Higher Education Act) of 23 September 2020 (GVBl. p. 461). Pursuant to § 49 HochSchG – Higher Education Act, the requirements for employment are, in particular, pedagogical aptitude and outstanding academic performance.

The State of Rhineland-Palatinate and Trier University are committed to intensive personal mentoring for students and, therefore, expect strong presence of teaching staff at the University. Disabled candidates with appropriate qualifications will be given preferential treatment. Trier University aims to increase the quota of female professors and strongly encourages female academics to apply.

Applications with curriculum vitae, copies of certificates (in particular first and second state examination, PhD and – if applicable - habilitation), list of publications, evaluation results and overview of previous teaching activities are requested by 25.03.2021 at the latest to the Dean of Faculty V- Law, Prof. Dr. Jens Kleinschmidt, LL.M., Trier University, 54286 Trier, as well as additionally in electronic form (pdf) to dekanatfb5@uni-trier.de. We request that you send us five publications in digital form only, which underline the applicant's qualifications for the advertised position.

Please do not submit application documents in folders or covers, not stapled and submit only uncertified copies, as the documents will not be returned; they will be destroyed after completion of the selection procedure.
