

Job Opening

The Institute for Labour Law and Industrial Relations in the European Union (IAAEU) at Trier University invites applications for one

Post-Doctoral Position wissenschaftliche/r Mitarbeiter/in (m/f/d) (payscale EG 13 TV-L; 100%)

starting preferably on February 1, 2020 or as soon as possible thereafter. The appointment is initially for a period of three years with the possibility of renewal for at most the same period.

The IAAEU is one of the leading research institutes in the area of Labour Law and Labour and Personnel Economics in Germany. The Economics team focuses in its work on labour market institutions and their consequences for market outcomes. It consists of up to ten colleagues, who approach relevant issues theoretically, empirically or experimentally. We offer a stimulating research environment, which supports staff in pursuing ambitious research projects, offers funding for research assistants, conference participation, as well as invitations of guests, and provides excellent opportunities for internal and external research cooperation. We regularly organise workshops and conferences and many of our former post-doctoral colleagues have taken up permanent positions (i.e. professorships) in universities in recent years. Accordingly, the IAAEU provides exceptional prospects for the next step in your academic career.

The successful applicant will contribute to the research output of the IAAEU in his or her field of expertise. Moreover, the position involves administrative tasks at the institute and offers the possibility to teach primarily Master-level courses at Trier University in English and German.

Your profile:

- Ph. D. in Economics or related, relevant subject
- Research interests in Labour or Personnel Economics
- Willingness to cooperate in joint research projects
- First publications in refereed, international journals or according potential
- Very good command of German and English language
- Readiness to take an active role in a small team of committed junior researchers

Hiring requirement is a degree according to § 56 Abs. 2 Nr. 1 Hochschulgesetz and a Ph. D. in Economics or a pertinent field. The IAAEU is an equal opportunities employer and seeks to increase the number of female colleagues. Therefore, qualified women are strongly encouraged to apply. In case of equal qualifications, disabled candidates will be given preference.

Applications (in a single PDF) including a cover letter, a CV, one research paper or publication and the names of two potential referees should be sent to Laszlo Goerke (goerke(at)iaaeu.de) who can also be contacted for further information. The review process starts on December 1 and continues until a candidate has been selected. Please also consult our homepage (<http://www.iaaeu.de>) for more details on the IAAEU.
