

How to apply for the Deutschlandstipendium

Information for International Students

The scholarship program Deutschlandstipendium is a good opportunity for all talented and high-achieving international students to apply for a monthly financial support (300 Euro) for two semesters during their studies at Trier University.

The scholarship is awarded irrespective of nationality, age or income. Both new students and higher-semester students can apply for the scholarship during the standard period of their studies. Additionally to a top academic record the criteria for an award include social commitment and/or special personal achievements, such as a student overcoming challenges or obstacles in his or her educational career.

The application phase for a Deutschlandstipendium for winter-term 2022/23 and summer-term 2023 is from Mai 30th to July 15th 2022.

You can apply for the Deutschlandstipendium during the application phase via an online tool, which will be activated at the beginning of each application phase. The link to this tool will be posted on the University's homepage (<https://www.uni-trier.de/studium/im-studium/studienfinanzierung/deutschlandstipendium/stipendiantin-werden>). A complete application requires filling out all mandatory fields of the online-application form and uploading the following documents (pdf-format):

For all applications the following documents are mandatory:

- Curriculum Vitae in table form
- University entrance qualification (A-levels, high school diploma or equivalent)
- Record of grades if you have been enrolled at the University of Trier for more than 1 term (Porta certification of grades; for faculty V students, please upload all your certificates)
- Certificate of enrollment
- Students in Master study programmes: Certificate of first university degree (Bachelor or equivalent)
- If applicable: certificates or supporting evidence of internships, vocational trainings and/or other achievements or social/family commitment

The following documents are voluntary and complement your application:

- Letter of motivation (max. 2 pages) - German or English
- Evidence of professional qualification and employer references
- Evidence of other qualifications and skills
- Evidence of particular awards or prizes
- Evidence of social or family commitment
- Evidence about obstacles or complications in your educational biography

Documents in any other languages than German or English cannot be evaluated by the committee.

Please note that PhD-Students cannot apply for the Deutschlandstipendium.

Should you need any help with your application or if you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me via E-Mail or phone (deustip@uni-trier.de, 0651 201 3124). It is also possible to arrange meetings via zoom.

Kind regards,

Daniela de Vries