

Study at Trier University

Where is Trier?

UNIVERSITÉ DE LA
GRANDE RÉGION
UNIVERSITÄT DER
GROSSREGION

Welcome!

Facts about Trier

- Germany's oldest city
- UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site
- "Rome of the North"
- About 110.000 inhabitants
- 2 universities with ca. 20.000 students
- Birthplace of Karl

Study in Germany – Higher Education

3 types of institutions:

Public
Universities (ca 108)
e.g Trier University

Universities of Applied Sciences (ca 240)

Colleges of art, film and music (ca. 70)

Dual Universities

- Majority of universities are state-run, i.e. there are no tuition fees for the first degree program
- Some private universities (only ca. 5,5% of students)
- Over 400 state-recognized universities in Germany with approx. 20,000 courses of study

Detailed information: www.study-in.de/

University profile

- A young university in Germany's oldest city
- First founded in the Middle Ages, reestablished in 1970
- 30 subjects in six departments with more than 100 degree-programs
- Distinct profile in the humanities and social sciences
- 12,000 students and 2,000 employees

University profile

- Campus honored as one of "100 special places" in Germany
- International exchange agreements with 240 universities worldwide
- In Europe: approx. 200 ERASMUS+ Agreements
- Member of the University of the Greater Region (UniGR)
- Campus university
- Since 2018 first "Fairtrade-University" in Rhineland-Palatinate
- Approx. 13 % international students

Campus I und Campus II

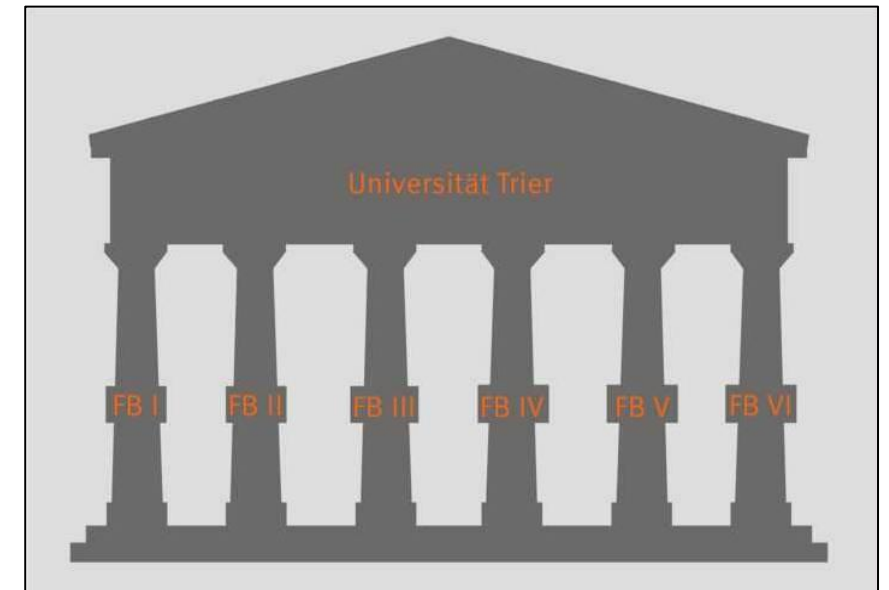

Academic structure

Decentralized system with 6 departments (+Theological Faculty).

Focus on humanities, social sciences, but also environmental sciences, nursing sciences, law, business administration, international relations...

Study subjects

Department II

- Computational Linguistics and Digital Humanities
- English Studies
- German Studies (incl. German as a Foreign and Second Language, Yiddish Studies)
- Japanese Studies
- Classical Philology
- Media Studies
- Phonetics
- Romance Studies
- Sinology
- Slavonic Studies

Department I

- Education
- Philosophy
- Psychology
- Nursing Sciences

Department III

- History
- Political science
- History of Art
- Classical Archaeology
- Egyptology
- Papyrology

Study subjects

Department IV

- Business Administration
- Economics
- Informatics
- Mathematics
- Sociology

Department V Law

Department VI Spatial and environmental sciences

4 types of courses

Lectures

Key player: Professor

Students: passive

Listening + Asking Questions

Exercise Courses

Consolidation of lectures

Seminars

Key player: Student

Active participation, presentations

Spoken language courses

Foreign language education

- Applied Statistics (M.Sc.)
- Anglophone Literature and Media (M.A.)
- Data Science (M.Sc.)
- Economics (M.Sc.)
- English Linguistics (M.A.)
- Environmental Sciences (M.Sc.)
- European and East Asian Governance (M.A.)
- Geoinformatics (M.Sc.)
- International Economics and Public Policy (M.A.)
- Natural Language Processing (M.Sc.)
- Sustainability Management & Economics (M.Sc.)

English taught Master
Programs

Application for exchange students

- Stay for 1 or 2 semesters (October - February, March - July)
- Dormitory rooms: rooms on campus or max. 10 minutes from campus (1-3 room apartments with own kitchen and bathroom). Limited amount available!
- Application: Please ask our home university's International Office for the procedure! Once you have been selected by your home university, Trier University will contact you with detailed information

Services for Exchange Students

Orientation seminar:

- 3 weeks German course (A1 - B2/C1) 4 hours each day
- Information sessions (studies, offers on campus...)
- Excursions and leisure activities
- Help with formalities
- Free German as a Foreign Language courses during the semester (3-5 ECTS - up to level C1)
- Course selection also possible from other departments
- Offers of the International Center: Buddys, Cafe International, excursions...
- International "Summer School" in August (IFK): Level A2 - C2, 20 hrs/week, 5 ECTS + Advanced training for DaF teachers, scientific lectures, cultural program

Student life:

Leisure time and offers at UT

- Over 60 sports at the university sports centre (badminton, yoga, basketball, karate...)
- Own hall, outdoor facilities (e.g. crossfit, tennis, basketball) & fitness studio
- Many student clubs
- Own orchestra and choir
- University vineyard
- Proximity to Luxembourg, France

More information:

Website for incoming students: www.incomings.uni-trier.de

Incoming students team: Ms. Janina Kröner, Ms. Leonie Wittke exchangestud@uni-trier.de

Willkommen	Wëllkomm	Bienvenue	Hoş Geldiniz
欢迎	Benvenuto	Добро пожаловать
Welcome	Dobrodošli	Maeva	Welkom
Բարի գալուստ		Tervetuloa	ようこそ
Välkommen	स्वागत	მისასალმებელი
	ברוך הבא		