

Short-term Funding for the Final Stage of a Doctorate

Trier University offers short-term funding for the final stage of a doctorate. The funding is financed through the Rhineland-Palatinate Research Initiative. Funding is granted for

- a) the completion of the dissertation including the submission or
- b) the preparation of the oral examination.

Application Deadlines:

15 March (Funding starting between 1 May and 1 July)

15 September (Funding starting between 1 November and 1 January)

Application Requirements:

- Previous and expected very good academic performance in doctorate
- Convincing timetable of the work plan for the completion of the dissertation or for the completion of the doctorate (oral examination) within the requested funding period
- The doctoral research is being carried out at Trier University.
- Starting date of the doctorate is no more than six years ago at the time of application. Exceptions to this rule are time off for family leave incl. caring for relatives, stays abroad, traineeships/internships, and employment activities.

Self-applications are not possible. Only the supervisors of the dissertation are allowed to propose candidates.

Not Eligible for Funding:

- Individuals who, according to the German Academic Fixed-Term Contract Act (Wissenschaftszeitvertragsgesetz, WissZeitVG), have already achieved the limit of fixed-term employment during the qualification phase before PhD
- Individuals who are actively employed at Trier University
- Individuals who already receive full-time or part-time funding from another German or international institution

Funding Amount and Duration:

Subject to the financing, the funding is offered in form of an employment contract as a student assistant with a Master's degree for 15 working hours per week for the duration of three months. Ten working hours per week will be financed for the entire duration of the contract through the Rhineland-

Palatinate Research Initiative. The remaining five working hours per week will be financed from the university's budget (e.g. the supervisor's chair).
