ELENI STAMATIOU

POEM

ORBITS AROUND THE SUN by ELENI STAMATIOU (2024)

I asked the Poetesse to write a Poem about You
I asked the Goddess to give You her Blessing
I asked from the Goddess to bless me to bless You
I have asked of the Gods to always protect You

They All have given You
Their Blessings
From my Mouth,
From my Pen

May your Dreams be blessed into your heartfelt Truth
May your Wishes morph into your Living
May your Life be gracious as a Wise Man's Life Never harm or strife, rather;
endless Gifts may you keep receiving

May you be able to live Anew as wished
May in your Days you get to know Glory
May all the Gods be with You appeased

May you be able to define your Own Story

May Health accompany You all your Days

May You celebrate your Wealth but in Grace

May you walk hand in hand with Love and in Light

May All of your Days on this Planet be Bright

May you Now be Blessed from the Heavens above

May you celebrate your Day with much Joy and Love

May All of your Wishes and Dreams Do come True

May you 're gifted bless't Gifts for the Skies Anew

May you enjoy your Days and All that comes to Pass

While being playful, witty, badass, fun and sass!

May You be Loved in a way previously unknown to Man

As strongly, boldly, fiercely as You humanely Can

May You exceed if you so Wish,

The usual Life of human span

So You keep finding Joy in your Path

While amply orbiting around the Sun

The Goddess is happy to Announce this Day

That You have been blessed beyond Measure or Way

In this, Truly, a Path which is One of your Own

It's your Goddess -if you want, who will show You Your Throne

Don't lament on the Previous,
Be oblivious to the Past
Take your Life in Your Word
And Rebirth it Now Fast

Sip a taste of your Strength, bite a flesh of the New Turn Around all the Story, construct it All to Your View
Drink a sip of the Drink of the Man that You Are Take a leap into Faith for the Large that's Afar

Take a sip of Your Strength in your buds, in your Veins
You will never negate who You Are in your Ways

For every birthmark granted by the Gods in the Sky
For every orbit around the Sun there's a Why
For every Man seeking the Truth there's a How
For every Reason to find Your Way there's a Now

Talk to the Goddess, appease Her with Love
She is Your Pathway to the Heavens above
Worship Her Love Her, Treasure Her Most
She is the One who will grant You
What your Soul desires deepmost

Love Her, Protect Her and Honour Her Deep
So She gifts You a Legacy shared for Both of You to keep

She will open You Doors you have never before Seen
She will turn You into the God You have Always Been

An Ode to the Goddess and an Ode to the God
And an Ode to Your Orbit around the Sun
May You Let the God within You Recreate the Man
So that the Gods delight in you; their Line's Chosen One

Take back All your Power gifted by the Gods up above
Who Reside within You, They are never afar
They're Your Brothers and Sisters who Are showing the Light
So that You and the Goddess take All the Paths right

So You are Always rejoicing in Abundance and Wealth
And You're Always re-kindling the Godhood in depth
And the Wisdom and Knowledge as so far-to-be-known
So that God and the Goddess create Gods of Your Own
So that You and the Goddess make Worlds of Your Own
So that You and the Goddess write Words of Your Own
So that You and the Goddess leave a Legacy of Your Own
So that You and the Goddess rejoice Always on Your Throne
So that You and the Goddess Live Forever to Be Known!

So embrace the Power within You
Which is completely yours to mold
And create a Vision within You

That is entirely for You to Hold
And Ruminates on Your True Nature: NOW

After one more orbit around this Sun
So that you endorse your Power To Be

A Proud:
A God-like Man!

May You enjoy profoundly many more orbits around this solar system Sun!
