POEM 2

Helpers* by ELENI STAMATIOU (2024)

In the Cave if the Aeons my Soul is aghast
But I welcome and I allow Them to tell Me all about the Past

So They come in the Cave and They walk up Around Me
I Am placed in the Center
so They All can Surround Me

I can hear Them well and I can hear Them Clearly So their Souls can approach Me and advise Me Dearly

“We’re the Voices of Women who belong in the Past We’re your Mothers, your Daughters
We’re your Souls other Paths

We’re your Allies, your Friends and your Guides We Are too

We are eager to Teach You your very Soul's own Truth

We're the Mothers, the Daughters
We're the Greatest of Time
We're the Friends and the Lovers the Ones Fine like best Wine

We Are Here indeed Always not only in Your Life's Prime We are approaching to Guide You in your own Soul's best Line

We Are your Friends and your Angels who walk by You
But aloof
We are here as Helpers to show You
Your Truth
When You hear Us and Allow Us then things happen
By Proof

We are Women, We are Warriors and We come from Afar
So we Guide You and your Prayers to the Heavens above

We envelop, embrace You with our Infinite Love And We're Here to protect You like an Invisible glove

We're Always by your Side

You are never alone

You just DO have to call Us your affairs are our own."

And the Women, the Murmurs

the Voices from the Times

Went silent and patient so I could glance at the Skies

Then They invited Me to tell

You again -yet, again

That They're Here just to Help You

Like They've helped All the Men

Like They've helped All the Women

Who have Prayed up Above

They are Helpers Forever -you see

And at all times with Love

To Fix things, to Improve Life

To Share their own Wisdom

Like Good Friends who Teach

by their Life's own Vision

They envelop and surround Us

But only If We Want so

They will never intervene except if They are truly told to do so

They are Carriers of Wisdom
And Love through the Ages
Such Knowledge could fill up Oh! Infinite pages!

And All that is Here for Us,
For Our best use
To advance and to Help Us
But never abuse

To Heal, to Instruct Us
To Improve and Align
Our Life's own Glory
So as to make it Divine

They asked Me to tell You
To Call when in need They'll take care of things
Rest assured at light's speed

They Want and Desire to offer Support
They're Always Present
Believe it or not

The Gods, the Divine

are Here for You To Please, to Inspire You, to Builds things Anew

They're calling You
Speaking to You in the Seas
They're surrounding You
Singing to You in the Breeze

They're there for You, approaching You at once with a Cry
In Nature, the blue Skies beside You -want to Try?

Signal Them, Message Them
Ask Them for Help Speak and explain what you Need and by when

They're here to Deliver to Help and to Aid
To offer Solutions never just a band aid

They can Alter your life's Path
They will resolve all your fears
They can offer You Answers
You've been Searching for years

They embrace your hardship
And transmute it to Love
As only Wonders and Beauty You're Deserving to have

Your Future is Brilliant,
So Bright, Oh! So Beau!
So long as You Know Thyself That's what They – and what Socrates Saw

All of this Earth is for You
To Acquire
You can have All of which You ever get to Desire

And the Helpers are Here
To Help You truly Achieve
Whatever You are Dreaming
If you Choose to Believe

So They told Me to tell You
To Call on Them Once
And you'll form a Relationship
You will feel their Presence

They will Always be Present
Sharing Help and Support They'll give You your Own World -rather,

Your Own Kingdom court

They are ready to Go now,
The Muses, the Voices
But They Always remain Near To Bless You in Your Choices

And to make All things Sure
And Secure for You, truly
And to Help and Assist You
Indeed, promptly and duely

They Thank You for your Time,
Your Attention and your Interest
And They invite You to call Them
In any moment of distress

They are surely Omnipresent Feeling Proud of Who You Are Witnessing your Progress
They say you Are a real Star!

“Many Greetings to Everyone
We shall See You again
In Nature, in your garden
In your Thoughts, in your Pen

In your Friendships, in a Touch,
In a moment of Truth

In your Soul's sacred space

In the Old, in the Youth

Do take care of Yourselfes

Now 'n in All that You do

Rest assured that We're showing You

All You'd wish't that You'd Knew."
