

What's the Database Information System (DBIS)?

Last update: October 2024

Database Information System (DBIS) / Literature without pay-wall

The Database Information System (DBIS) can be used to access various databases. Searching in DBIS can be done at any time and from anywhere.

Access to the databases depends on the provider of the database. Many databases are freely available on the net.

However, many full texts in the databases are only freely available via the university's campus network. Guests can access the tutorial: "How do I get a guest card and what can I do with it?" on the UB homepage at "Bibliothek entdecken"

University members can access the licensed databases and their contents from home and may need the VPN client, which can be downloaded from the ZIMK homepage (VPN access to the university network). For some databases, only the ZIMK ID - which students already have - is sufficient for access from home.

Where can I find the databases?

→ <https://www.uni-trier.de/bibliothek> → Select "Datenbanken (DBIS)" in the menu "TOP-LINKS" ...

A horizontal navigation bar contains several menu items: 'HOMEPAGE', 'NEUE SUCHE', 'INDEXSUCHE', 'FERNLEIHE', 'HILFE', 'DBIS', and a three-dot menu. The 'DBIS' item is highlighted with a red square. Below the navigation bar is a search bar with the placeholder text 'Alles durchsuchen' and a search icon. To the right of the search bar is a 'Katalog' dropdown menu and a magnifying glass icon. The main content area features two informational boxes. The left box, titled 'Aktuelle Informationen zum Serviceangebot der Universitätsbibliothek', provides details about opening hours and service offerings, including a link to 'Aktuelles auf unserer Homepage' and information about the IRDT collection. The right box, titled 'Beratung?', provides contact information for library staff, including an email address, a phone number, and links for chat and location information.

Access and availability

Accessibility options to the databases are colour coded (resembling traffic lights).

Green means free access.

Yellow means that the database can only be accessed via the university network.

However, in most cases, complete access is also possible via VPN. If you click on the title of the database, you will find more information on access in the detailed display.

Access

Some of the databases are accessible via "Shibboleth", e.g. the "Cambridge Core" database.

"Shibboleth" means that you only need your own ZIMK-ID for access, regardless of the location of the device used. In this case, you do not need a VPN

Using the databases

Some databases can be accessed from outside the campus via VPN. It is important to use the lower arrows for the forward and backward commands in the session. If the online connection (session) is interrupted, you have to wait a while until you can call up the database again.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying 'https://link.springer.com'. The browser's navigation bar includes back, forward, and refresh buttons, with the forward and back buttons highlighted by a red box. The website content includes the Springer Link logo, a search bar, and a navigation menu with links for Home, Books A-Z, Journals A-Z, Videos, and Librarians. A prominent banner reads: 'Providing researchers with access to millions of scientific documents from journals, books, series, protocols, reference works and proceedings.' Below this, there is a 'Springer Reference' logo and a promotional offer: '$20 OFF YOUR FIRST ORDER WITH CODE WELCOME20'.

Using the databases

When you find a title in a database, you often either get to the full text or a green "UB Trier" button appears.

What do I do if a title I am looking for is not available in the library?

You could place an interlibrary loan order. Ordering from another library is easy to do. For students the cost is €1.50 per order. More information here:

Bibliothek > A - Z > F > Fernleihe

Or you can make an acquisition request. Then the item will be purchased. There are no costs for the person who placed the order.

However, it takes a few weeks until the desired item is available. Not every acquisition suggestion will be purchased ; this is decided by the responsible subject librarian.
